

EPISODE 06 · KIDS ADVENTURE WORKBOOK

Your Money Quest Map: Pick Your First Path

Five mentors. Five paths. One pass that opens all of them.

Your kid just met five mentors and five money skills. Now they pick the one that lit them up most — and they go deep. Money Smarts. Insurance Genius. Investor Lab. What's a Tax. Business World. One annual pass. All five tracts. Every K/P/T pack. Every Transcript Kit. One choice tonight that pays for the next 50 years.

Squire (6-9): sticker the jars. Match the words. Try one quiz square.

Knight (10-13): finish the workbook. Take the 7-question quiz. Earn the Champion seal.

Champion (14-16): finish everything plus the family chat plus the extension question.

Tagline: The Money Lessons Schools Skip. Taught as an Adventure, Not a Lecture.

THE HOOK

Five mentors stand at five doors. Which door makes YOU lean forward? That's your first path.

Write your answer in the box. There is no wrong answer here. We just want your first guess.

Why this question matters: *Your kid just met five mentors and five money skills. Now they pick the one that lit them up most — and they go deep. Money Smarts. Insurance Genius. Investor Lab. THE FIVE-PANEL COMIC

Watch ALL FIVE walk through the five steps. Read each panel out loud.

Panel	Mentor	What happens
1. MONEY SMARTS	CASH-team	5 Jars. Earn, save, spend, give, goal.
2. INSURANCE GENIUSHIELD		Pay it away — for the rare ruinous event.
3. INVESTOR LAB	IVY	Chase the productive risk. Time is the cheat code.
4. WHAT'S A TAX	LEDGER	Read a paycheck. Build a citizen.
5. BUSINESS WORLD FORGE		Make it. Sell it. Stand behind it.

Squire challenge: Circle the panel that surprised you most.

Knight challenge: Rewrite Panel 3 in one sentence using your own words.

Champion challenge: Add a sixth panel of your own. What would it say?

Which mentor lit me up most? Why?
Which tract feels SCARIEST?
Which tract would help my family fastest?

Predictions you write down stick 4x better than predictions you only think about. Real research, real result.

MINI-COMIC DIALOGUE

Read this mini-comic out loud with one parent or sibling. Take turns being ALL FIVE and being the kid.

Speaker	Line
CASH	Five mentors. Five tracts.
SHIELD	Five different kinds of grown-up money decisions.
IVY	Pick the one that lit you up.
LEDGER	The other four wait inside the same pass.
FORGE	The kid who runs a loop AND opens a custodial account is unstoppable.
Kid	What if I pick wrong?
All	There is no wrong path. There is only the next one.

Director's note: Whichever person plays the mentor — keep your voice STEADY. The mentor is never panicked. That is part of the lesson.

REFLECTION JOURNAL

After you watch the video AND finish this workbook, answer these three questions in your own words.

What is ONE word from the glossary I'd never heard before?

What is ONE thing I did NOT believe before but I do now?

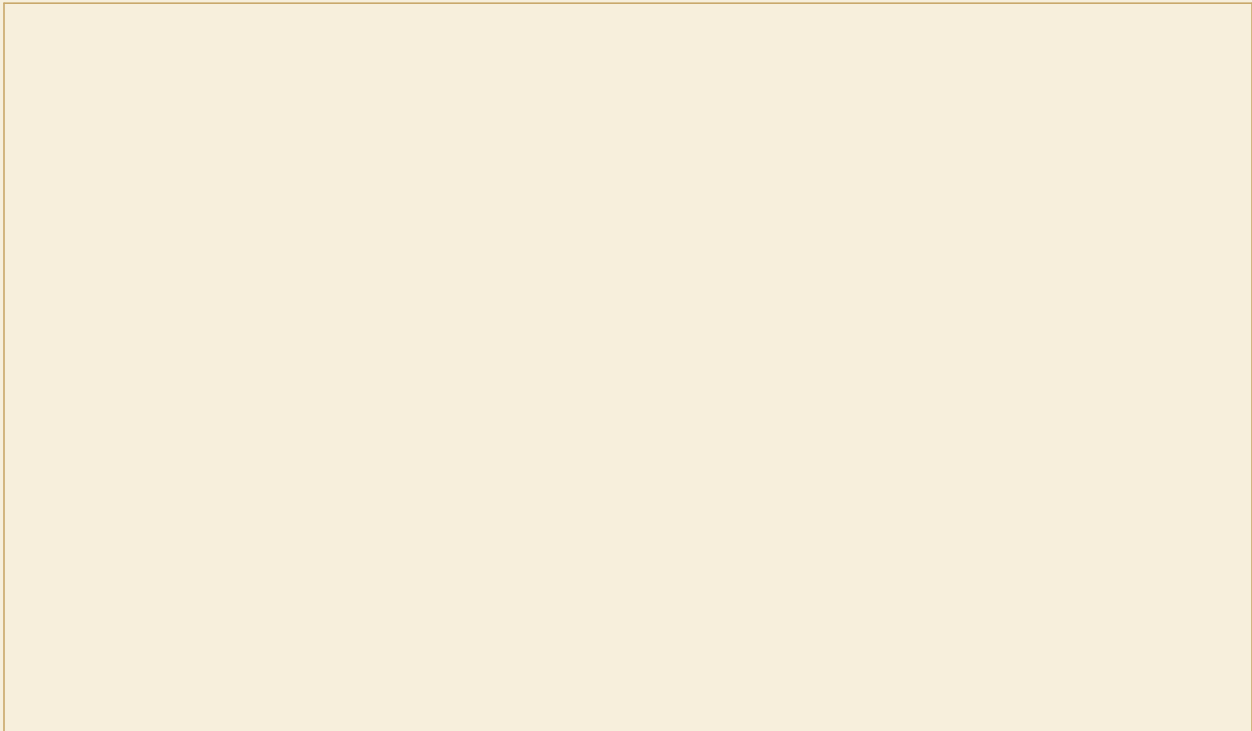

What is ONE habit I want to start by next Monday?

- Write a 4-line rap or song with the key vocabulary words.
- Sketch a comic where the mentor shows up at YOUR dinner table.
- Build a simple chart with 3 columns: I knew, I sort-of knew, I learned today.
